

Colloquium, Tuesday 11th February 2020

1:00 – 1:30 pm, Café, Wolfson College

Arrival for tea and coffee

1:30 – 3:00, Leonard Wolfson Auditorium

Panel: Queer Lives in History

Chair: Dr Kate Kennedy

Mara Gold – ‘Curiously Sapphic’: Classics and queer coding in women’s learning environments and beyond 1880–1920’

Ruth Ramsden-Karelse – ‘Becoming Capucine: Queer Identifications in District Six’

Meg Roberts – ‘The Top Hat: A Queer History in Britain since 1800’

3:00 – 3:30, Café, Wolfson College

Break for tea and coffee

3:30 – 5:00, Leonard Wolfson Auditorium

Roundtable: Queer Lives in the Pitt Rivers Museum

Chair: Meg Roberts

Olivia Sharrard – ‘Beyond the Binary’ Collections and Exhibitions Officer

Sophie Seeyave, Shakira Morar, Catherine de Guise – Community Curators

Mara Gold – ‘Beyond the Binary’ Exhibition Researcher

5:00 – 5:30, Café, Wolfson College

Break

5:30 – 7:00, Leonard Wolfson Auditorium

Keynote: Dr Jane Traies – ‘Forty Years of Steadfast Friendship’ or, What Does a Lesbian Look Like?

Honorary Guest Chair: Alison Hennegan, University of Cambridge

